History of Kangs

The Kangs family first moved to Sri Lanka in 1991. Their passion for cooking began in their very own house kitchen by cooking home-made Korean dishes. The demand for Korean food grew and in 2018 May, they took over Seoul restaurant at Horton Place and became the Kang's Kitchen today. Kang's Kitchen is an authentic Korean restaurant with a very friendly and homely atmosphere. All the dishes are cooked with home-made recipes and ingredients where most of them are imported directly from Korea.

Interest in coffee was growing fast in Sri Lanka. Korea, being one of the largest consumers of coffee, the Kangs started to import raw coffee beans and roast them themselves to come up with their own coffee blend, calling it Kang's Coffee.

Kang's Barbecue launched by soft opening on April 2023. The Korean barbecue has and is becoming extremely popular throughout the world, solidifying itself as its own unique cuisine. Kang's Barbecue is aiming to become one of the most authentic Korean barbecue restaurants in Sri Lanka with Kang's own recipes.

Kang's Norebang is a family-friendly Korean singing room. The intention is to introduce a big cultural aspect of Korea to Sri Lanka. Located on top of Kang's BBQ, you will be able to experience a glimpse of the Korean moment you enter the room. Enjoy both English and Korean songs with your family and friends along with the separate bites menu and drinks.
