ARTISAN CEYLON TEA SELECTION

A TEA TASTING JOURNEY

Ever since Scotsman James Taylor planted the first commercial Tea crop on the Loolecondera Estate near Kandy, in the Central Hills of Sri Lanka, (Ceylon as it was known then) in 1867, "Ceylon Tea" has become synonymous with high quality Teas across the world.

Heritage Cafe & Bistro's small batch artisan Teas have been diligently selected with the aim of nurturing and preserving that legacy. Our exclusive selection offers you the unique opportunity to enjoy a wide variety of exotic Teas from different regions in Sri Lanka, from the foothills of the Uva and the Knuckles mountain range to the Highlands of Dimbulla and Nuwara Eliya to the slopes of Sri Pada and the rainforests of Ruhuna offering you a variety of terroirs, techniques and flavours.

These handcrafted Teas are sourced directly from the growers, which ensures a higher income for the Tea farming families.

High Grown Ceylon Black

Tippy Golden Orange Pekoe with Tea Flowers

An incredibly smooth Tea from Uva region with heavenly Honey and Almond notes from golden flowers

850

Dimbulla Premium Orange Pekoe

A classic handmade Golden liquor with bright floral notes

700

Low Grown Ceylon Black

Orange Sunshine

A typical Low elevation Southern Black Tea from Ruhuna region. Its ablaze with contrasting flavours of flowers and chocolate.

700

Herman's Rolled Pekoe

A smooth long leaf Tea, popular in the Middle East and Europe. A medium bodied Tea with very pleasant liquor.

700

Green Teas

Jasmine Green Tea

Inspired by Japanese and Chinese traditions, this unique creation from Ruhuna region results in a delicate light leafy coloured cup with the flavour and fragrance of Jasmine and counter notes of Seaweed.

850

Cinnamon Green Tea "Cigar"

Handcrafted one Cigar at a time, by wrapping Tea leaves around a Cinnamon leaf, this light bodied cup from Ruhuna Region provides an exotic blend of aroma and flavours of Cinnamon and Green Tea.

1000

Flavoured Teas

Spiced Chai Bombs

Black Tea from Uva region, blended with a mix of Organic proprietary spices and hand-moulded into small gems that explode with zingy, spicy flavours when immersed in hot water.

1000

Vanilla Black Tea "Cigar"

Artisans of the Sabaragamuwa region roll long Tea leaves around a slither of fresh Vanilla-pod grown in the forests of Sri Pada, creating an exceptionally smooth black Tea with an amazing aroma and sweet flavour.
